Thrilling Mystery Drama Opens At Warner Bros., San Pedro

A scene from Roland West's "The Bat Whispers" with Chester Morris. A United Artists thrilling mystery drama. Opening at Warner Bros. San Pedro Theatre next Sunday.

"The Bat Whispers" will bring shouts from the audience at the Warner Bros. San Pedro Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Not to mention screams from the ladies and gasps from the men.

With Chester Morris in the featured role, Roland West's producer-director for United Artists has contrived the most startling hour and a half of film entertainment of the year.

The stage comes into its own at Warner Bros. when "Mothers Cry" opens there on Friday and Saturday.

Director Robert Henley insisted on getting an experienced cast of noted stage players. With all the stage to select from, Henley obtained the services of what he considers "the finest acting personnel of his long experience as a director."

Playing the role of "Mary," the sorrowing mother, is Dorothy Peterson, one of Broadway's most versatile actresses, and the star of many great plays. The part of "Danny," the wretched son, is portrayed by Edward Woods, who has, strangely enough, essayed convict roles in six successive dramas on Broadway.

Other well known stage names in the cast include David Manners, as "Artie," Helen Chandler, as "Beatty," and Evelyn Knapp, as "Jenny."

Attention, Kids! In Person Mickey "Himself" McGuire, and his entire gang of Toonerville kids, including Stinky Davis, Tomboy Taylor, Hambone Johnson, Teeth McDuff, Little Katrinka, Holly Barty at the meeting of the "Bosco" club of Warner Bros. San Pedro Saturday morning. And on the screen, Mickey and his gang in "Mickey's Stampede" also, Rin-Tin-Tin in "Rough Waters" and the third episode of that thrilling mystery serial "Finger Prints." Also more Mo-Vee Stars pictures, also prizes to the lucky boy and girl.

Mickey McGuire, Saturday morning, will appear as lucky boy and girl from the audience to appear in his next comedy picture and will give them a contract for same.

-At Fox Plaza

All the romance of the old west and the glamour of the Indian country is strikingly presented in Bill Boyd's latest starring vehicle, "Painted Desert," which plays at the Fox Plaza theatre Friday and Saturday. A Laurel and Hardy comedy, "Be Big" is also offered.

Greta Garbo is said to reach the peak of her film career in "Inspiration" her latest picture which plays at the Fox Plaza for Sunday only. Robert Montgomery plays the leading masculine role. An Educational comedy, "The Hollywood Theme Song" and a Paramount scenic are also on the program.

GRETA GARBO

For Monday and Tuesday, Marion Davies in a spy comedy drama, "Bachelor Father" will be the feature attraction at the Fox Plaza. The picture is not recommended for children.

Wednesday and Thursday, the Fox Plaza will offer a return engagement of "Caught Short" starring Marie Dressler and Polly Moran, by popular request. A Mickey Mouse cartoon and an Epic Travelogue, "Third Island of Peru" are also on the program.

Friday and Saturday, the attraction will be another epic of the underworld and gangster life, "Little Caesar" featuring Edw. G. Robinson and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. A Monkey comedy, "Nine Nights in a Barroom" and a Paramount cartoon are also offered.

-at Fox Redondo

During the filming of "The Big Trail," Raoul Walsh's epic Fox Movietone of the pioneer west, Walsh chartered a special train to transport the large company of players from Sacramento, California, to Victor, Idaho.

Pullman porters vied with each other for an assignment on that train figuring tips from the movie troupe would be plenty heavy. In a close race a certain Pullman barber got the coveted job for the two-day run and then got the shock of his life. He learned that Walsh had issued a "no shave or haircut" edict, and had threatened to send home the first player who had as much as a quarter of an inch taken from his beard or locks.

"The Big Trail" which features John Wayne, Marguerite Churchill and El Brendel opens Tuesday for a three days run at the Fox Redondo.

-at Torrance

New Lower Prices Will Start March 1

Beginning Sunday, March 1, a new lower price schedule will go in effect at the Torrance Theater, according to an announcement this week by Manager Frank Higgins. The prices will be adults 30 cents and children 10 cents as usual.

A domestic problem that has been the cause of bitter unhappiness in countless homes—namely the plight of a wife when a more fascinating woman enters her husband's life—is reflected in the dramatic plot of "Passion Flower," which will play Sunday and Monday at the Torrance Theater.

This is the picture which Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer made from Kathleen Norris' widely-read novel with Kay Johnson and Charles Bickford playing the married pair whose happiness is shattered when Kay Francis comes along as the alluring "other woman." Important supporting roles are played by Lew Stone, Zasu Pitts and the three-year-old Dickie Moore.
